REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE ON RULES

MR. SPEAKER: Your Select Committee on Rules begs leave to report that we have met and recommend the following changes and amendments to the Temporary Rules of the House of Representatives of the 94th General Assembly, and that upon the adoption of this report, the Temporary Rules, as amended, be made the Permanent Rules of the House of Representatives of the 94th General Assembly.

I. Present Rule 3 --

3. OTHER DUTIES OF SPEAKER. The Speaker shall supervise the preparation of the daily journal and ensure that a copy of the journal of the preceding day be placed on each member's desk prior to the beginning of the daily session. He shall have general direction of the Representative Chamber in accordance with the authority granted under the Rules of the House.

AMEND Rule 3 by deleting the first sentence in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

The Speaker shall supervise the preparation of a daily journal.

Rule 3, as amended, then would read as follows:

3. OTHER DUTIES OF THE SPEAKER. The Speaker shall supervise the preparation of a daily journal. He shall have general direction of the Representative Chamber in accordance with the authority granted under the Rules of the House

II. Present Rule 12 --

12. ORDER OF BUSINESS. The reading of the daily journal for the preceding day shall not be required; provided, however, that upon appropriate motions, the House may direct that the same be read. Any corrections in the journal shall be suggested by individual members under the order of Unfinished Business.

After appropriate opening ceremonies, the Speaker shall call for the following:

- (1) Roll Call
- (2) Calendar
- (3) Resolutions lying over
- (4) Unfinished business
- (5) Announcements
- (6) Roll Call
- (7) Introduction of Resolutions
- (8) Introduction of Bills
- (9) Senate Bills on First Consideration
- (10) Senate Bills on Second Consideration
- (11) House Bills on Second Consideration
- (12) Petitions and Memorials
- (13) Reports from Standing Committees
- (14) Reports from Select Committees

AMEND Rule 12 by removing item (3) from its position in order of business and by placing it between the present items (7) and (8) and by renumbering the newly ordered items appropriately Rule 12, as amended, would then read as follows:

12. ORDER OF BUSINESS. The reading of the daily journal for the preceding day shall not be required; provided, however, that upon appropriate motions, the House may direct that the same read. Any corrections in the journal shall be suggested by individual members under the order of Unfinished Business.

After appropriate opening ceremonies, the Speaker shall call for the following:

- (1) Roll Call
- (2) Calendar
- (3) Unfinished business
- (4) Announcements
- (5) Roll Call
- (6) Introduction of Resolutions
- (7) Resolutions lying over
- (8) Introduction of Bills
- (9) Senate Bills on First Consideration
- (10) Senate Bills on Second Consideration
- (11) House Bills on Second Consideration

- (12) Petitions and Memorials
- (13) Reports from Standing Committees
- (14) Reports from Select Committees

III. Present Rule 41 --

41. ANNOUNCEMENTS. All announcements, including announcements of committee meetings, shall be reduced to writing and sent to the Clerk's desk and there read.

AMEND Rule 41 by deleting the language of the rule in its entirety.

IV. Present Rule 63

63. STANDING COMMITTEES. There shall be the following standing committees, each of which the Speaker and the Speaker Pro Tempore shall be voting members, to wit:

- (1) Agriculture
- (2) Commerce
- (3) Conservation and Environment
- (4) Education
- (5) Finance, Ways and Means
- (6) General Welfare
- (7) Government Operations
- (8) Judiciary
- (9) Labor and Consumer Affairs
- (10) State and Local Government
- (11) Transportation

Provided, however, the Speaker Pro Tempore shall only vote when the Speaker is not present and voting, except on those two standing committees to which the Speaker Pro Tempore has been regularly assigned.

There shall be a Committee on Calendar and Rules to be composed of the Speaker; the Speaker Pro Tempore; the Majority Caucus Chairman, and an additional member to be selected by the Majority Caucus Chairman; the Minority Caucus Chairman, and an additional member to be selected by the Minority Caucus Chairman, one chairman, one vice chairman, and one secretary appointed by the Speaker under House Rule 7; and the chairman, vice chairman, and the secretary of each of the standing committees listed above. It shall set the calendar and establish hours and places of meeting of the various standing committees. In establishing the hours and places of meeting of the various standing committees, the Committee on Calendar and Rules shall, insofar as possible, establish regular meeting times and days which shall avoid conflict among the various standing committees. No standing committee shall have more than thirty (30) appointed members. No member shall serve on more than two (2) standing committees, exclusive of the Committee on Calendar and Rules, the Joint Legislative Services Committee, and the Fiscal Review Committee, except the Speaker and the Speaker Pro Tempore who shall be voting members of all standing committees.

AMEND Rule 63 by deleting the first sentence of the third paragraph in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

There shall be a committee on Calendar and Rules to be composed of the Speaker, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader or his designee, the Majority Caucus Chairman, the Minority Leader or his designee, the Minority Caucus Chairman, one chairman, one vice chairman, and one secretary appointed by the Speaker under House Rule 7; and the chairman, vice chairman, and secretary of each of the standing committees listed above.

Rule 63, as amended, then would read as follows:

63. STANDING COMMITTEES. There shall be the following standing committees, each of which the Speaker and the Speaker Pro Tempore shall be voting members, to wit:

- (1) Agriculture
- (2) Commerce
- (3) Conservation and Environment
- (4) Education
- (5) Finance, Ways and Means
- (6) General Welfare
- (7) Government Operations
- (8) Judiciary
- (9) Labor and Consumer Affairs
- (10) State and Local Government
- (11) Transportation

Provided, however, the Speaker Pro Tempore shall only vote when the Speaker is not present and voting, except on those two standing committees to which the Speaker Pro Tempore has been regularly assigned.

There shall be a committee on Calendar and Rules to be composed of the Speaker, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader or his designee, the Majority Caucus Chairman, the Minority Leader or his designee, the Minority Caucus Chairman, one chairman, one vice chairman, and one secretary appointed by the Speaker under House Rule 7; and the chairman, vice chairman, and secretary of each standing committees listed above. It shall set the calendar and establish hours and places of meeting of the various standing committees. In establishing the hours and places of meeting of the various standing committees, the Committee on Calendar and Rules shall, insofar as possible, establish regular meeting times and days which shall avoid conflict among the various standing committees. No standing committee shall have more than thirty (30) appointed members. No member shall serve on more than two (2) standing committees, exclusive of the Committee on Calendar and Rules, the Joint Legislative Services Committee, and the Fiscal Review Committee, except the Speaker and the Speaker Pro Tempore who shall be voting members of all standing committees.

V. Present Rule 79 (1)

79. UNIFORM RULES OF COMMITTEES

(1) The chairman, after advising with the vice chairman and secretary, shall set the calendars for hearings before the standing committee, taking into consideration the necessity and importance of the legislation before the committee. Those bills and resolutions requested by the sponsors to go on the calendars shall first be placed on the calendars, provided that the chairman, after advising with the vice chairman and secretary, shall set the calendar for hearings on a reasonable number of bills or resolutions at each committee meeting. The chairman, after advising with the vice chairman and secretary, shall have the authority to set on the calendars additional bills or resolutions not requested by the sponsors if, in the opinion of such officers, a reasonable number of measures has not been set for hearing. The standing committee shall publish the committee calendar (bills to be heard) for its next regularly-scheduled meeting as early as practicable but no later than forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the time set for the meeting, and the sponsor of each bill or resolution scheduled for hearing shall be notified.

This provision shall not apply to a bill or resolution transmitted by a standing committee to the Finance, Ways and Means Committee for recommendation.

AMEND Rule 79 (1) by deleting the last sentence of the first paragraph in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

The standing committee shall publish the committee calendar (bills to be heard) for its next regularly scheduled meeting as early as practicable but not later than 4:30 p.m. (CST) on the Thursday prior to the regularly scheduled meeting, and the sponsor of each bill or resolution scheduled for hearing shall be notified.

FURTHER AMEND Rule 79 (1) in the second paragraph by inserting after the word "Committee" the words "or the Committee on Calendar and Rules".

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1985--5th LEGISLATIVE DAY

Rule 79 (1), as amended, then would read as follows:

79. UNIFORM RULES OF COMMITTEES.

(1) The chairman, after advising with the vice chairman and secretary, shall set the calendars for hearings before the standing committee, taking into consideration the necessity and importance of the legislation before the committee. Those bills and resolutions requested by the sponsors to go on the calendars shall first be placed on the calendars, provided that the chairman, after advising with the vice chairman and secretary, shall set the calendar for hearings on a reasonable number of bills or resolutions at each committee meeting. The chairman, after advising with the vice chairman and secretary, shall have the authority to set on the calendars additional bills or resolutions not requested by the sponsors if, in the opinion of such officers, a reasonable number of measures has not been set for hearing. The standing committee shall publish the committee calendar (bills to be heard) for its next regularly scheduled meeting as early as practicable but not later than 4:30 p.m. (CST) on the Thursday prior to the regularly scheduled meeting, and the sponsor of each bill or resolution scheduled for hearing shall be notified.

This provision shall not apply to a bill or resolution transmitted by a standing committee to the Finance, Ways and Means Committee or the Committee on Calendar and Rules for recommendation.

VI. Add the following new rule:

Upon motion, the House acting by the written message of the Clerk may request the return of a bill or resolution from the Senate. If a bill has been transmitted to the Governor, upon motion, the forwarding body acting by written message of the Clerk may request the return of the bill or resolution from the Governor.

VII. Add the following new rule:

After a bill has been scheduled for third consideration, the sponsor of any bill or resolution may before the House request another date for third consideration, and the bill or resolution shall be so scheduled; however, the sponsor of any bill or resolution shall only have the right to make such a request three (3) times on any particular bill or resolution. If the House does not consider the bill or resolution on or before the fourth such scheduled time, the bill or resolution shall be
